California & Federal Civil Procedure

Presented by

Christopher J. Martz, Esq.

Mr. Martz, an attorney in private practice in San Francisco, specializes in Landlord-Tenant law and Juvenile Dependency Law. He received his J.D. degree from New College of California, School of Law. As an adjunct professor at John F. Kennedy University, School of Law, Mr. Martz teaches Civil Procedure. He has written articles concerning Foreclosure and Landlord-Tenant Law for California Real Estate Law and Practice, and was a contributing author for the California Landlord and Tenant Practice Guide.

An overview of California Civil Procedure will be presented with emphasis on areas where state and federal doctrines diverge. The course will focus a review of the major concepts in Federal Civil Procedure, with a view to gaining exposure to California practice. The concepts include: jurisdiction, venue, service of process, pleading, discovery, joinder, discovery motions, preclusion, trial, and appeals.
